

WORLD SOCIAL WORK DAY ASSIGNMENT

The Social Workers Union (SWU) have announced the theme for their annual World Social Work Day student essay competition.

The competition is open for entries on Tuesday 19th March 2024 and will close for entries end of day Sunday 16th June.

The prize: Four grants of £500

The criteria: A 750 - 1000 word assignment written by a Social Work Student undertaking an Undergraduate or Post Graduate Social Work Degree in the UK or a Social Work Apprentice.

The question posed is:

"Why does reflective supervision matter in social work? How does it support social worker wellbeing and practice?"

All completed assignments will be judged by a Panel.

Please forward your completed assignment before that date with a covering letter giving your Name, Address, University, Year of Study and Academic Tutor (if appropriate) or details of Apprentice Social Work Programme and Supervisor/Manager to: joanne.marciano@swu-union.org.uk

The assignment should be typed, have your full name, the assignment question as the title, and must follow an academic process; such as word count and Harvard Referencing System.

Please note: By taking part you are agreeing to SWU using the assignment for future purposes such as newsletters or other forums. Only the winning assignments will be used.
