

Person with a Learning Disability

13. What does your social worker do to get the right care and support for you?

12. How does your social worker help you understand everything that is available in the area where you live?

11. What makes you feel that your social worker is doing a good job?

10. How does your social worker really help you understand what their job is and what they can do for you?

9. How does your social worker help you make decisions?

8. How do you think that you and your social worker get along?

7. How does your social worker help you understand everything about the care and support you will get?

6. What does your social worker do to make sure they really understand how difficult it is for you as a person with a learning disability?

5. Do you think your social worker really sees you as a real person?

4. How does your social worker check to make sure you are always safe?

3. How does your social worker check with you what things you are good at?

2. How does your social worker check with you what the best way is for you to communicate?

1. How does your social worker tell you about the choices you have about your care?

CAN YOU MAKE IT TO THE TOP

Social Worker

13. Provide an example of something you feel proud of in terms of the work you are doing with this person

12. Explain how the work that you do ensures that the person gets the support they need and works best for them?

11. Explain how you have developed a working relationship with the person

10. How have you made sure that the person you are working with is aware of how to keep themselves safe where they live, work or go for fun things?

9. Explain how you provide information to the person to help them make their own decisions

8. How do you present information to the person about the choices they have about support?

7. Explain how you find out about the things the person is good at and what they enjoy doing?

6. Have you checked what is the best way to communicate with the person with a learning disability?

5. What do you do demonstrate that you see the person with a learning disability as an equal and real person?

4. Provide an example that shows you understand the challenges and difficulties the person you are working with faces on a day to day basis as a person with a learning disability?

3. How do you find out what is important to the person?

2. Explain how you have informed the person about their rights and the legal duties of the local authority and other organisations.

1. How do you explain your role to the person?

CAN YOU MAKE IT TO THE TOP